

Interactive comment on “DeerLab: A comprehensive toolbox for analyzing dipolar EPR spectroscopy data” by Luis Fábregas Ibáñez et al.

ASIF EQUBAL

asifequbal3@gmail.com

Received and published: 1 July 2020

As a novice in DEER, I would want to understand under what conditions (in terms of local and global electron-spin concentrations) restricting the DEER dipolar de-phasing model to two electron spins is valid.

In case of amyloid fibres, can multi electron effects be ignored? Or can such an effect be treated as a part of background?

Interactive comment on Magn. Reson. Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/mr-2020-13>, 2020.

C1